

LifeVantage Adds to European Footprint, Launches in Ireland

May 1, 2019

SALT LAKE CITY, May 01, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- LifeVantage (Nasdaq:LFVN) has launched its third European market in the past eight months, adding Ireland to its slate this week.

With select LifeVantage products having been offered in Ireland for approximately a year as part of the company's Global Customer Acquisition Program, the country has already distinguished itself as a viable market.

"Ireland already has a solid base of customers who love our products and has proven itself a successful customer market in a relatively short period of time, so opening it up for distributor enrollments is the next natural progression," said LifeVantage Chief Sales Officer Justin Rose. "We're excited about Ireland's prospects as our newest market."

The following products are available in Ireland: Protandim Nrf2 Synergizer® supplement, Omega+ fish oil supplement, Pro+ probiotic supplement, TrueScience® Beauty System, TrueScience Facial Cleanser, TrueScience Perfecting Lotion, TrueScience Eye Serum, TrueScience Anti-Aging Cream, and TrueScience Hand Cream. Protandim Nrf2 Synergizer® supplement is scheduled to be available in June.

LifeVantage has operated in the United Kingdom, including Northern Ireland, since 2016 and also has a European presence in Germany, Netherlands, Austria, and Spain, in addition to Ireland.

"The opening of Ireland is something that has been highly anticipated among many of our leaders in the UK in particular, and we expect it to be a productive asset in our larger European strategy," said LifeVantage CEO Darren Jensen. "We're excited to take this next step and grow our biohacking community in a part of the world that is key to our success."

The company anticipates further expansion in Europe to support growth in the region, including in Belgium, which is currently scheduled for launch next month. Select LifeVantage products are currently available in Belgium on a not-for-resale basis as part of the same customer program.

With the addition of Ireland, LifeVantage now serves 14 markets in North America, Europe, Australia, and Asia.
